ABSTRACT

This resource list on adolescent parenting includes both a bibliography of books, periodical articles, and research reports, and a directory of resource organizations. Part 1, "Books and Articles," is comprised of an 11-page unannotated list of monographs and journal articles published between 1973 and 1987. A wide range of topics is covered, including policy and program development, characteristics of adolescent parents and their children, and parenthood education needs. Part 2, "Resource Organizations," is comprised of a directory of 13 educational, research, and service organizations that provide consultation and information to those who work with adolescent parents and their children. Each entry is accompanied by a brief description of the services available, and the address and telephone number of the organization. (FMW)
